

DestinySTUDIO.NET

Destiny Studio is growing! As we expand we are seeking professional, people-loving, energetic staff to help us serve our community.

Our Mission:

Destiny Studio exists to ignite passion and cultivate confidence in people through mentoring, training, and by sponsoring moments that matter for a lifetime.

Our Values:

- Because people matter to God, people matter to us.
- Everyone has a purpose, and everyone is here for a purpose.
- We sponsor moments that matter for a lifetime.
- We respond, take initiative, and have a self-employed mentality.
- Confidence changes people and people change the world.

Job Title: Early Childhood Creative Arts Instructor

Location: Destiny Studio Aledo

Salary: $15-25 per hour

Overview:

We are looking for a passionate and creative Early Childhood Creative Arts Instructor to join our team! This role focuses on teaching interactive and engaging arts classes for young children (ages 0–6), incorporating music, movement, and creative expression to spark joy and confidence in every student.

Description of Role:

- Facilitate Mini Music classes — a weekly parent + child group class for ages 0–4 that incorporates songs, movement, instruments, and interactive play
- Lead Artist Playground — a fine arts (drop off) preschool program for ages 3–5 — using a hybrid of music, art, and dance curriculums
- Prepare for all classes each week using the training resources and curriculum provided
- Assist with general studio operations as needed — such as answering phone calls, welcoming parents and clients, and maintaining a clean and organized environment
- Build relationships with the families in your classes and make every effort to keep them engaged in our programs
- Uphold Destiny Studio's mission and values in all interactions and represent the studio professionally at all times
- Participate in team meetings, professional development, and studio events as requested

Qualifications + Requirements:

- Experience: Previous experience in early childhood education, music, creative arts, and caring for children ages 0-5. Able to follow and execute a provided lesson plan.
- Music Proficiency: Basic knowledge and understanding of music theory and ability to sing in tune, keep a steady beat, and lead children and caregivers in learning early childhood songs.
- Organizational Skills: Exceptional organizational abilities with a keen eye for detail and the ability to manage multiple tasks simultaneously.
- Communication Skills: Strong verbal and written communication skills, with the ability to interact effectively with diverse stakeholders, including children and their families.
- Problem-Solving Ability: Proven ability to anticipate and resolve conflicts efficiently.
- Tech Proficiency: Proficiency in using scheduling and office software (e.g., WellnessLiving, GSuite, Canva) is a plus.
- Strong Work Ethic: Demonstrates a self-employed mentality and enthusiasm for the studio's mission and culture. Willingness to take on additional responsibilities as needed.

What We Offer:

- A collaborative, purpose-driven team environment with passionate leadership and clear vision
- All curriculum, training and resources needed to do the job effectively
- Opportunities for professional growth and creative input
- Competitive compensation commensurate with experience
- The opportunity to strengthen bonds between parents and little ones through parent + child classes
- 50% off lessons and classes for yourself and immediate family

Availability:

- Part-time: Available 3-5 days/week from 8:30am-12:30pm with potential for more hours.
- Willing to commit to a minimum of 12 months (most instructors stay for years!).

How to Apply:

Check out our website destinystudio.net/careers and fill out the application online.